Erotize Equality

We are living in a new time where love making can mean so many things-- exploring the body-temple with an understanding that some pleasures are only found in the moment while others can only be discovered over many moons of sharing in the illumination of touch.

how we use our body & share our love, is the most sacred of treasures...

within this human skin-- where we can touch within.,. if only for a moment.

we are living in a time when the dirt can no longer be swept under the rug: time's up on the those who think they can buy or force: we are not here to be degraded.

however, there is a whole nother world of beauty & sacred sexuality & fun fucking that are wonderful eARTHly delights. you know the difference: just live it;)

I came to eARTh & all I did was never tell anyone how I really felt...

Breakfast in bed...

it's better fresh & raw.

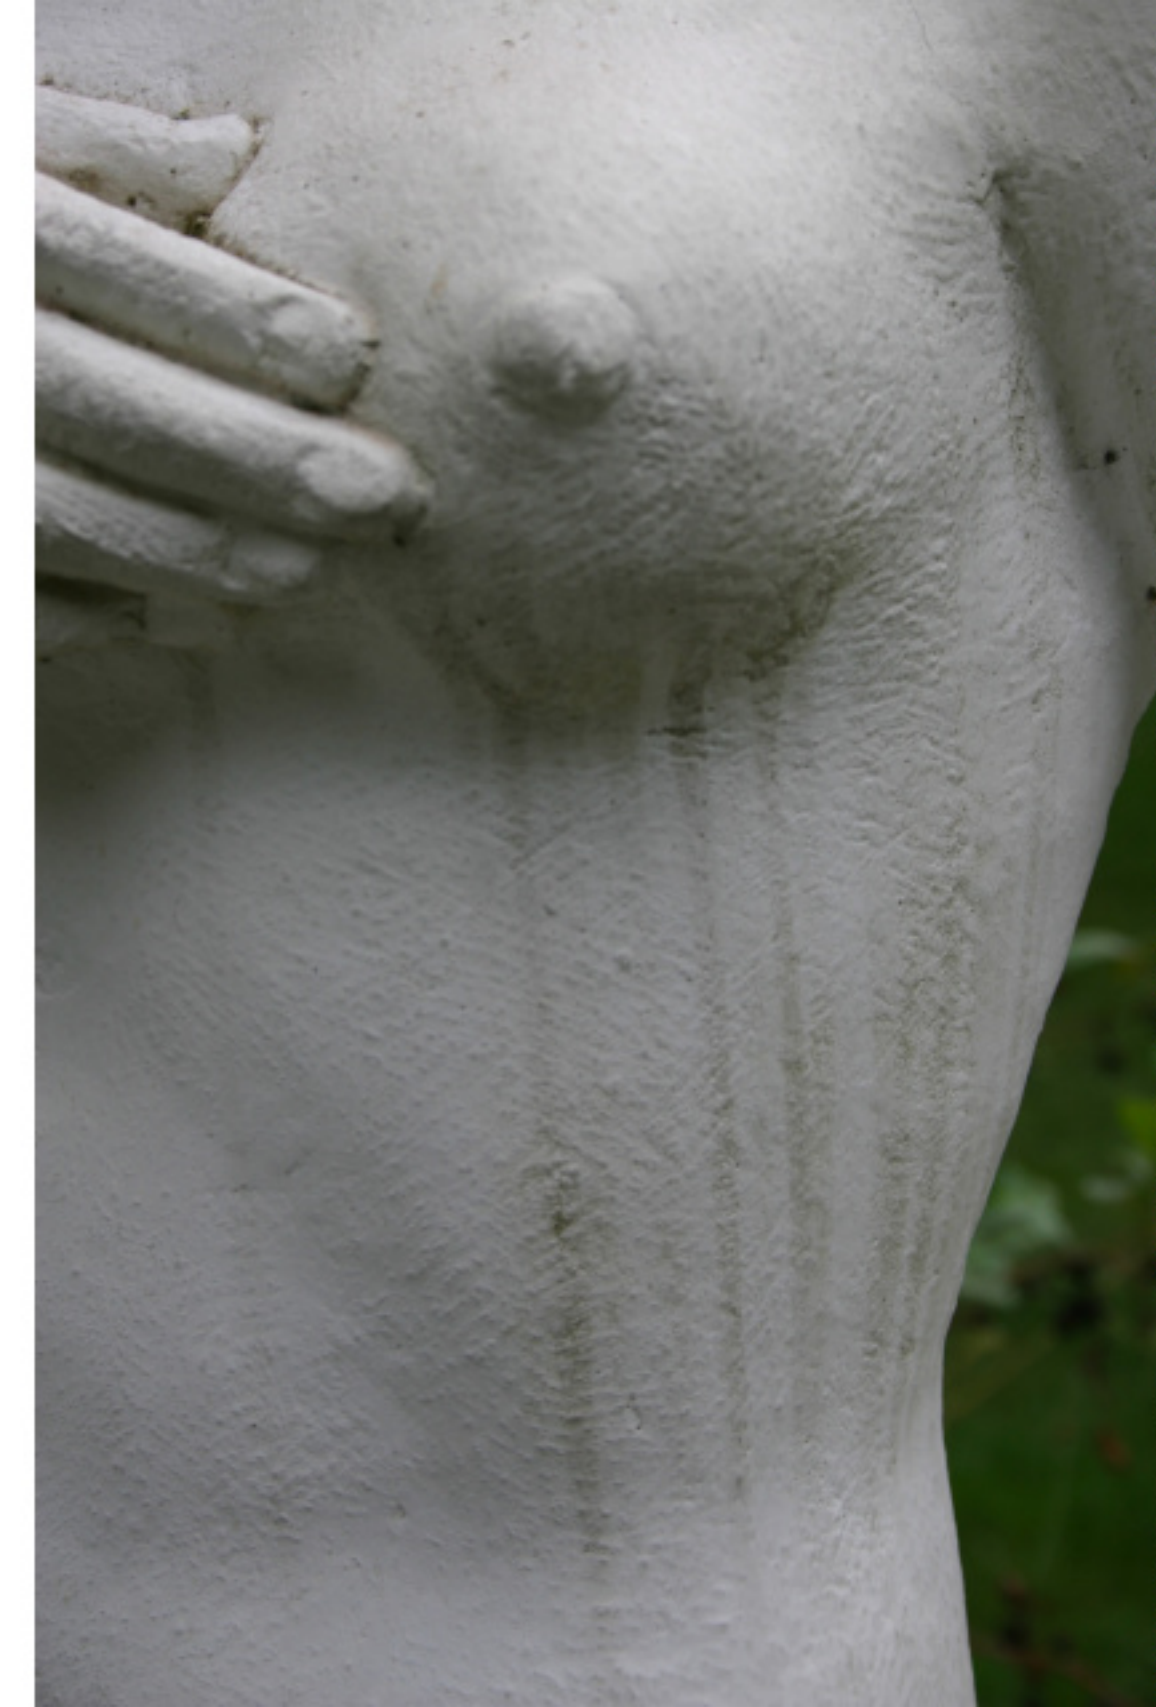

a nice variety of fruits ripe for the plucking.

Desire & Sensation
 have a magic
 still self-love is not found in another... embrace with reverence & the profanes becomes holly
 & the holly profane.
 I love.
